STORY LINE: This is a music video. The song is by Andrea Bocelli and Sarah Brightman. The title is "Time To Say Goodbye". his music video will involve a man and a woman with a hefty dose of misinterpretation. The basic idea is that the man walks in on his girlfriend hugging another man. He miss interprets this and runs away. He then decides that life isn't worth living so he jumps off a bridge. It is a romantic tragedy, like Romeo and Juliet. There will be 4 main locations and the song runs 4 minutes.
